

what are the big broadcaster worried about? why don't they improve their service? They have took the big station and turned them into a all night "bull talk shows" some people like to have good information and the long haul trucker can use the weather inf to plan their routes to stay out of the bad weather and traffic so why don't you worry about the real stuff and leave XM radio alone.